SAVE $2000 PER COUPLE!
Dear Rutgers Alumni and Friends,

Idealized for centuries in the literary and popular imagination, the sparkling coastlines of the French and Italian Rivieras have served as haven and home, inspiring some of our best-loved tales and romanticized histories, from those of Homer to Princess Grace Kelly. Join Rutgers alumni on this exclusive small ship voyage and enjoy exquisite landscapes, visit enchanting villages and cruise idyllic islands—favored retreats for artists, writers, nobility and gourmands. Traverse the timeless cradle of the Renaissance and discover the dynamic biographies of the contending empires that shaped these sun-kissed regions’ profound artistic and architectural legacies.

The exclusively chartered, state-of-the-art, Five-Star Le Jacques Cartier, launching in 2020, docks in ports inaccessible to larger vessels. This sophisticated small ship offers only 92 Suites and Staterooms, each with a private balcony. Enjoy the advantages of small ship cruising—elegant ocean-view accommodations, an exclusive itinerary and attentive, personal care.

Cruise from Barcelona to Rome, with one port of call each day and opportunities to visit five treasured UNESCO World Heritage sites. This travel program features intimate off-the-beaten-path destinations and incredible legendary ports. Visit Carcassonne’s French medieval fortifications and the vibrant, unforgettable Italian cliffside villages of Cinque Terre. Experience the renowned art and light of Aix-en-Provence, culturally chic Nice, the legendary Rock of Monaco, Corsica’s ancient port of Bonifacio and choose to admire the Renaissance treasures of Florence or the historic Tuscan monuments of Lucca and Pisa.

This cruise program, offering a comprehensive itinerary and a great travel value, sells out year after year. I encourage you to book now while space is still available!

Sincerely,

Josh Harraman

P.S. Rivieras of France, Italy and Spain is one of several programs offered by the Rutgers University Alumni Association in 2020. For a complete list of departures, visit Ralumni.com/Adventures20.
Europe’s Rivieras and Islands
Crossroads of Civilizations

For centuries, the turquoise waters and olive coasts of the French and Italian Rivieras enticed the Greek, Etruscan, Phoenician, Roman and German beau monde. The elite flocked to these seaside towns as de rigueur of the 19th-century “Grand Tour” to rejuvenate in this restorative climate. The rise of Italian nobility—particularly the Savoys, Italy’s ruling family from 1861 to 1946, and the Grimaldis, the lineage of the current Prince of Monaco— influenced the popularity of these now flourishing coastal gems nestled between the Alps and the sea. The Côte d’Azur’s radiant light captivated the genius of Pablo Picasso, Henri Matisse and Marc Chagall, influencing each artist’s distinct style and use of brilliant color, while the glamour of the region attracted eminent writers like F. Scott Fitzgerald and Ernest Hemingway. Experience firsthand the enchanting allure of the Rivieras!

U.S./Barcelona, Spain
Saturday and Sunday, October 10 and 11
Depart the U.S. for Barcelona, showcasing architectural glories spanning two millennia, from the vestiges of a Roman necropolis to a remarkably preserved Gothic quarter and the Modernist flourishes of Salvador Dalí, Gaudí and Picasso. Embark Le Jacques Cartier and enjoy the Captain’s Welcome Reception on board Sunday evening.

Sète, France, for Carcassonne
Monday, October 12
The former frontier between France and Spain and occupied since the sixth century B.C., Carcassonne is the largest walled city in Europe. It was fortified by the Romans, conquered by Visigoths, captured by Persians, invaded by Franks and overrun by Barbarians; each culture influenced the city’s architectural and artistic heritage. The medieval core of Carcassonne, La Cité, is a UNESCO World Heritage site characterized by cobblestone streets and the Romanesque Gothic-style Basilica of Saints Nazarius and Celsus, famed for its exquisite stained glass. Enter the citadel through the imposing Porte Narbonnaise and visit the medieval Château Comtal—where well-preserved remnants and fascinating archaeological displays trace the history of Carcassonne. Continue to the nearby Corbières Mountains to tour the hallowed 11th-century Cistercian Abbaye de Fontfroide, a stronghold of Catholic orthodoxy against the Cathars during the Crusades.

Marseille for Aix-en-Provence
Tuesday, October 13
Romantic, medieval Aix-en-Provence captures the élan of France’s sun-drenched Provence. Stroll through the Mazarin district, Old Aix and along the famous Cours Mirabeau, a grand boulevard lined with canopied plane trees and elegant 17th- and 18th-century townhouses. Visit the Cathédrale Saint-Sauveur, a French national monument, featuring Romanesque, Gothic and neo-Gothic architectural styles that range from the fifth to 17th centuries standing adjacent to the site of the first-century Roman Forum of Aix.

This afternoon, return to Marseille, designated the 2013 European Capital of Culture, where nearly three millennia of maritime heritage has thrived. Enjoy a ride along the Corniche Kennedy, the city’s meandering coastal boulevard dedicated to the late U.S. president, and historical La Canebière, the high street built by Louis XIV in 1666. See the city’s Old Town, majestic 19th-century Cathédrale de la Major and the Vieux Port (Old Port), often considered Marseille’s birthplace. Visit the neo-Byzantine Notre Dame de la Garde with extraordinary views overlooking the city and harbor.

Nice/Rock of Monaco
Wednesday, October 14
The “capital of the Côte d’Azur,” Nice is the modern epitome of Riviera chic, a delightful hybrid of French and Italian culture, and captivates visitors with the time-honored traditions, brilliant light and Mediterranean magnetism that inspired Chagall and Matisse. Enjoy a walking tour of Nice’s charming Old Town and exceptional panoramic views from Parc du Mont Boron.

Relish the Riviera’s dramatic coastal views along the famous Corniche Moyenne from Nice to Monaco. Revel in the celebrated belle-époque architecture of Monaco, the former home of beloved Princess Grace. Visit the neo-Romanesque St. Nicholas Cathedral, where the Princess and Prince Rainer III are interred, and the sumptuously decorated State Apartments of the 13th-century Prince’s Palace, featuring masterworks by Pieter Bruegel the Elder and Hans Holbein the Younger.

Lucca’s sixth-century Cattedrale di San Martino is situated in a secluded part of the old city center. Riomaggiore and Vernazza, linked by footpaths with views of the secluded coves and terraced vineyards renowned for producing the sweet dessert wine, Sciacchetrà.

This evening, dock in Portofino, the perfect village for a leisurely evening on the Italian Riviera. You may choose to visit the 17th-century Chiesa di San Giorgio, enshrining the relics of the legendary dragon-slaying saint; stroll the pedestrian-only avenues; or sip a cappuccino on a café terrace.

Italy’s Cinque Terre is a breathtaking mélange of color; each of its five terraced villages offer astonishing views of the Ligurian Sea coastline.
Livorno for Florence or Lucca and Pisa
Friday, October 16
Arrive in Livorno, and choose between two quintessentially Italian excursions:

En route to Florence, Firenze to locals, savor Tuscany’s landscapes of cypress trees and vineyards. The birthplace of the Renaissance, this treasured UNESCO World Heritage site is home to masterpieces of unparalleled art, architecture and literature. Admire Michelangelo’s David, Filippo Brunelleschi’s iconic dome on the Duomo, and Lorenzo Ghiberti’s bronze-cast “Doors of Paradise,” created for the Baptistry of San Giovanni, depicting scenes from the Old Testament.

Or, enjoy a scenic drive to the medieval Tuscan university city of Pisa and the graceful town of Lucca. See Pisa’s Piazza dei Miracoli, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and the legendary leaning tower where Galileo is said to have conducted some of his first gravity experiments. Visit the 11th-century Duomo and the largest baptistery in Italy, which originated the unique Pisan Romanesque style. Walk along Lucca’s remarkably preserved Renaissance city walls, designed in part by Leonardo da Vinci, and see the 11th-century Cattedrale di San Martino, home to the venerable Volto Santo crucifix believed to have been carved by Nicodemus of Biblical renown.

Bonifacio, Corsica, France
Saturday, October 17
Homer’s Odyssey portrays the mythic giants who hurled boulders from the sheer white limestone cliffs of Bonifacio, sinking 11 Greek ships. Today, the island’s delightful French character embraces a strong Italian influence, manifested in the locals’ engaging French-Italian dialect.

Transfer by a small train to the medieval citadel and Old Town. Stroll the Rue des Deux-Empereurs, where Charles V and Napoleon once lodged, and see the Gothic Église Saint-Dominique de Bonifacio overlooking the striking Grain de Sable limestone formation.

Enjoy the Captain’s Farewell Reception on board the ship this evening.

Civitavecchia, Italy/Rome/U.S.
Sunday, October 18
Disembark the ship and transfer to Rome, a UNESCO World Heritage site that was once the epicenter of the vast Roman empire, and continue on the Eternal Rome Post-Program Option, or transfer directly to the airport for your return flight to the U.S.

Marseille’s Notre Dame de la Garde surveys the Vieux Port and “Le Panier,” the city’s oldest quarter.
Luxury Small Ship, Innovative Design
Le Jacques Cartier, launching in 2020, ushers in a new generation of Five-Star small ships, combining revolutionary design and a new standard of luxury for unparalleled cruising. Dock in smaller ports inaccessible to larger ships where authentic cultural experiences and majestic scenery await you.

Respect for the Environment
A new addition to the Ponant “Clean Ship” fleet, an important distinction among ocean-cruising vessels, Le Jacques Cartier is energy efficient and eco-friendly, protecting fragile marine ecosystems.

Elegant Suites and Staterooms, 100% with Private Balconies
Each of the 92 Five-Star Staterooms and Suites (up to 484 square feet) features a private balcony. Grand Deluxe Suites have a bay window and spacious private terrace. Accommodations offer two twin beds or one queen bed, individual climate control, private bathroom with shower and luxury hotel-style amenities.

Chic and Casual Dining
Dine indoors or alfresco on international and regional cuisine served in the stylish, spacious indoor-outdoor restaurant, at the casual pool deck grill or from 24-hour room service. Daily meals include continental and buffet breakfasts, buffet lunch, afternoon tea and four-course dinner.

Life on Board
Experience the Blue Eye, the world’s first multisensory, underwater Observation Lounge. Enjoy sweeping views from the upper lounges—which open to the outdoors—and lectures, cultural performances or film screenings in the state-of-the-art theater. Relax in the spa, sauna or infinity-style swimming pool. The ship has a beauty salon, a fitness room and three elevators. Complimentary Wi-Fi access is available (conditions permitting).

World-Class Service
The highly trained, English-speaking crew is personable and attentive, and the ship has a medical center staffed with a doctor and a nurse.
